

Labor Commission of Utah Take Safety Seriously Art Contest Contest Details

Art Contest Rules

- Every student enrolled in junior high or middle school in Utah is invited to participate in the "Take Safety Seriously" art contest.
- Students are allowed to create one entry. The entry must be a two-dimensional drawing or painting no larger than 2' x 3' and on paper flexible enough to put through a scan.
- Artwork can be done using: paints, markers, computer art and/or pen and ink. Collages are welcomed too. Students should keep in mind artwork may be reproduced and full color artwork is preferred.
- The entry should communicate the message to "Take Safety Seriously" and express the need for everyone to take safety seriously in the workplace. Some suggested sectors include: construction, manufacturing, office, mining, service, transportation, and the public sector.
- Students are encouraged to discuss the project with their parents/guardians; using the enclosed information as a guide (this is helpful, but not mandatory).
- The Labor Commission will provide suggestions for incorporating workplace safety into the curriculum for the TLC classes.
- With suggestions from parents/guardians, or teachers, students should choose their own artwork content.
- All artwork must be completed by the students.
- All entries will become the sole property of the Utah Labor Commission and may be reproduced by the Commission for any purpose and in any form.
- ALL ENTRIES MUST BE RECEIVED BY THE LABOR COMMISSION NO LATER THAN MARCH 1, 2011, AT 6 PM TO BE CONSIDERED.

Judging Details

- Teachers will collect the entries and send them to:
The Utah Labor Commission
ATTN: Elena Bensor

P.O. Box 146600
Salt Lake City, UT 84114-6600

-Entries may also be hand delivered to our office at:
160 East 300 South, 3rd Floor, SLC Utah

-Entries will be judged by a panel of officials from education, the Labor Commission, and the community based on the artwork's content, originality, execution and relevance to workplace safety.

-The winner and top finishers will be notified at school no later than May 2011.

Awards

-All student participants will receive a certificate of recognition from the Utah Labor Commission.

-The winning entrant and his/her class will each be awarded a $500 cash prize and his or her artwork will be used in Utah Labor Commission campaign materials. The winner may also receive a personal visit from the Utah Labor Commissioner.

-The second, third and fourth-place entrants and their classrooms will receive a $300 cash prize each. The next eight selected entrants and their classrooms will each receive a $200 cash prize.

-All money awarded to the classrooms of winning entrants may be used for an event, activity, or item(s) that can be appreciated by the entire class.